- e) Support opportunities are offered to all clients as necessary and within guidelines

3. Definitions

3.1 The following words and expressions have the following specific meaning, as in the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015.

Access and Equity means policies and approaches aimed at ensuring that VET is responsive to the individual needs of learners whose age, gender, cultural or ethnic background, disability, sexuality, language skills, literacy or numeracy level, unemployment, imprisonment or remote location may present a barrier to access, participation and the achievement of suitable outcomes.

3.2 Discrimination (other definition)

Discrimination occurs when a person is treated less favourably than others due to the person's circumstances, characteristics or beliefs.

a) Direct Discrimination

Direct discrimination takes place when a person, organisation or group of persons is treated less fairly than others on the basis of stereotyped beliefs or views, such as: race, sex, pregnancy, marital status, family responsibilities, breastfeeding, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or intersex status.

b) Indirect Discrimination

Indirect discrimination includes rules, practices or policies which appear to be non-discriminatory and equally applicable, but operate in such a way that certain groups of people are excluded without just cause.

3.3 Workplace Harassment (other definition)

Harassment is any behaviour which is unwelcome, offends, humiliates or intimidates a person and causes the work environment to become unpleasant. If a person is being harassed, then their ability to do their work is affected as they often become stressed and suffer health problems.

Harassment may result from behaviour which is not intended to offend or harm, such as jokes or unwanted attention however, this does not mean that it is lawful.

- c) Hitting, pushing, shoving, spitting, or throwing objects at a person
- d) Unfastening a person's attire

3.8 Bullying (other definition)

Bullying is an ongoing and deliberate misuse of power in relationships through repeated verbal, physical and/or social behaviour that intends to cause physical, social and/or psychological harm. It can involve an individual or a group misusing their power, or perceived power, over one or more persons who feel unable to stop it from happening. Bullying creates a risk to health and safety of others. Bullying can include, but is not limited to the following:

- Verbal harassment
- Non-verbal harassment
- Physical harassment
- Cyberbullying - any form of bullying behaviour that occurs online or via a mobile device. It can be verbal or written, and can include threats of violence as well as images, videos and/or audio.

3.9 Vilification (other definition)

Vilification is a PUBLIC act that incites or encourages, hatred towards, serious contempt, revulsion or severe ridicule against another person or group of people, based on the grounds of race and/or religion. Vilification could include such things as encouraging people to hate a racial or religious group using:

- flyers
- stickers
- posters
- a speech or publication
- websites, email or social media.

In Australia, racial vilification is deemed unlawful and punishable by both State and Federal law.

4. What is NOT Harassment

Genuine critique and instruction given by staff or trainers, is NOT harassment. Gramac Training Solutions has the responsibility and legal right to direct their staff and training participants/learners with relation to performance and management. This includes providing feedback or notifying staff or training participants/learners of an unsatisfactory performance or assessment.

5. Policy Principles

Gramac Training Solutions will not accept any form of discrimination and we will apply the following principles in support of access and equity:

5.1 Access and Equity Principles

- a) Gramac Training Solutions abides by access and equity principles.
- b) Gramac Training Solutions will respect a client's right to privacy, confidentiality and be sensitive to client needs.
- c) Gramac Training Solutions provides equal opportunity for all learners and is responsive to the individual needs of learners whose gender, pregnancy, race, marital status, sexuality, age, family/carer responsibilities, disability, transgender, political conviction, cultural or ethnic background, linguistic background, religious belief, geographic location, socio-economic background, employment/unemployment, imprisonment may present a barrier to access, participation and achievement of suitable outcomes.
- d) At enrolment, learners will be asked to identify personal needs or circumstances that may exist and for which they may require additional support (See Enrolment Policy).
- e) Gramac Training Solutions will ensure that all staff, employees, and contractors have access to the information and support needed to prevent discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and violence, victimisation, and vilification or to deal with it appropriately if it occurs.
- f) Gramac Training Solutions seeks to create a learning environment where all learners are respected and can develop their full potential.
- g) All learners are given fair and reasonable opportunity to attend and complete training.
- h) All staff are given fair and reasonable opportunity to participate in relevant decision-making processes and the allocation of resources and services as required to fulfil their duties and responsibilities.
- i) Deficiencies will be investigated to determine whether a breach or policy deficiency exists. Should a discrepancy be proven, the impact of that breach or deficiency will be identified along with how the policy should be amended to eliminate the breach or deficiency in the future.
- j) All perceived deficiencies in the Access and Equity Policy are to be documented, assessed and reviewed by the Director Gramac Training Solutions.
- k) Gramac Training Solutions will demonstrate its commitment by:
 - i. Selecting students according to a fair and non-discriminatory process
 - ii. Making its training relevant for a diverse student population
 - iii. Providing suitable access to facilities and resources
 - iv. Providing appropriate support services or referring to external providers
 - v. Providing appropriate complaints procedures
 - vi. Consulting with relevant industry groups
 - vii. Raising staff, contractor and student awareness of equity issues.

5.2 Equal Opportunity

Gramac Training Solutions is an equal opportunity company and does not discriminate against or favour target groups in either recruiting or training, unless prescribed by funding contracts.

Target Groups are defined as:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders
- People with a disability
- People from non-English speaking backgrounds
- People in transition and other special groups (i.e., people re-entering the workforce, long term unemployed, sole parents, people with literacy problems, and those who have been institutionalised)
- Women
- People from regionally isolated communities.

5.3 Support Needs/Considerations

- a) Prospective learners intending to enrol for training with Gramac Training Solutions are requested prior to enrolment to advise Gramac Training Solutions if they have any disability, physical or other impairment which may adversely affect their ability to successfully undertake training and assessment.
- b) Learners are encouraged to discuss with Gramac Training Solutions any 'support info' and/or 'reasonable adjustments' to the study environment which they consider are necessary or would assist them in the performance of their studies.
- c) Gramac Training Solutions, in collaboration with the learner, will assess the potential for the learner to successfully complete the training which may include flexible delivery options to optimise the ease and benefit of learning to the learner. However, no compromise to the integrity of the assessment against competency will be allowed.
- d) Learners with a disability are required to have the ability to fulfil the core requirements of the Units of Competency to attain the relevant award. However, it is recognised that flexibility in arrangements may need to be implemented.

5.4 Language, Literacy and Numeracy

- a) Each Training Package sets a minimum requirement in language, literacy and numeracy skills of learners, with which Gramac Training Solutions must abide. Where minimum requirements are set, all learners are required to sit a Language, Numeracy and Literacy (LLN) assessment, which is current for a year. If the learner registers for further training during the next twelve months, no LLN assessment will be required.
- b) Gramac Training Solutions makes appropriate concessions for language, literacy and numeracy issues of learners where these concessions do not compromise the requirements of the relevant Training Package and the integrity, equity and fairness of assessment.
- c) Where a learner is deemed, either prior to enrolment or throughout the training program, to possess a lower level of language, literacy or numeracy than is the minimum requirement for the requirements of the Training Package, Gramac Training Solutions will provide appropriate advice and support to the learners regarding further learning options. At times, further language or literacy development or remedial assistance may be required to be completed prior to the continuation or completion of the learner's course of study. The support will be for the duration of the training.
- d) Additional support choices will vary depending on the requirements of the learner, and additional charges may be incurred for the learner. These may include, but are not limited to:
 - Counselling services or referral to these services
 - Additional tutorials
 - Language, Literacy and Numeracy Support.

5.5 Harassment

- a) Harassment will not be tolerated at Gramac Training Solutions. If harassment occurs, the person responsible will be subject to disciplinary procedures. Disciplinary action will be taken against any staff or learner involved in such behaviour. This may include termination of employment and removal of the learner from the training course.
- b) Serious cases of harassment may constitute a criminal offence.
- c) Gramac Training Solutions will not tolerate behaviour which is considered to be sexual harassment and expects all staff, contractors and learners to treat each other with dignity and respect.

5.6 Bullying and Violence

- a) Gramac Training Solutions will not tolerate bullying or violent behaviour and expects all staff, contractors and learners to treat each other with dignity and respect.
- b) Gramac Training Solutions recognises bullying and violence demeans and infringes the rights of individuals and groups, damaging the work and learning environment.

5.7 Vilification

Gramac Training Solutions will not tolerate behaviour which vilifies another person and expects all staff, contractors and clients to treat each other with dignity and respect.

5.8 Complaints

- a) Gramac Training Solutions encourages informal resolutions of discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and violence, victimisation, and vilification grievances in the first instance, as close to the source as possible, with the option of conciliation or investigation of the complaint if necessary.
- b) Complaints will be investigated in a confidential manner and action will be taken to ensure that the discrimination/harassment stops. Appropriate warning or disciplinary action will be taken where harassment is found to have occurred.
- c) Those responsible for advising, conciliating or investigating a complaint must act fairly and impartially, they must act without bias and avoid any conflict of interest. The respondent must be given a fair opportunity to know the case against him or her and to be given the opportunity to make a considered response.
- d) All staff, clients/learners and contractors involved with the Gramac Training Solutions complaint procedures will be treated with respect and courtesy. Enquiries and complaints will be dealt with in a sensitive, equitable, fair, and confidential manner. All attempts will be made to deal with matters expeditiously while ensuring all parties are provided with sufficient time to prepare and or respond.
- e) Gramac Training Solutions acknowledges that it is of paramount importance and in the best interests of all parties that confidentiality is maintained during these procedures.
- f) Gramac Training Solutions encourages the reporting of behaviour that breaches equal opportunity policy but will not tolerate vexatious or frivolous complaints.

5.9 Victimisation

- a) In order for complaints to be brought forward, complainants must feel secure in the knowledge that Gramac Training Solutions procedures will be followed without fear of reprisal.
- b) Gramac Training Solutions will not victimise or treat any person unfairly for making a harassment complaint.
- c) Gramac Training Solutions will not tolerate behaviour of victimisation of another person and expects all staff, contractors and learners to treat each other with dignity and respect.
- d) Any complaint of victimisation will be treated in the same manner as a complaint of discrimination, sexual harassment or vilification.

6. Responsibilities

Gramac Training Solutions has a legal and moral obligation to provide equal opportunity in an environment free from discrimination for staff, contractors and learners to ensure that discrimination/harassment does not occur in the workplace.

Gramac Training Solutions will:

- Maintain policies and procedures for equal opportunities for all staff, contractors and clients
- Disseminate policies and procedures to staff, contractors and clients

- Examine all policies and practices, as they affect staff, contractors and clients to ensure the elimination of discrimination and harassment
- Ensure that there is no discrimination against any individual client or group of learners or staff, in access to facilities, products and services
- Educate staff and contractors on the general goals and philosophy of equal opportunity together with the rationale for policies and practices which are adopted
- Eliminate sexist and other discriminator language from all publications and discourage the use of such language in all printed material and in the speech of its staff, contractors and learners
- Establish and maintain mechanisms to deal with complaints.

6.1 Director Responsibilities

Gramac Training Solutions Director and Managers are responsible for client and learner equity.

The Director will not condone nor engage in discriminatory/harassing behaviour.

The Director is responsible for ensuring that all staff are aware of this policy and that complaints will be dealt with in accordance with the terms of the Complaints and Appeals Policy.

The Director and Managers are to ensure staff act according to this policy and all learners are made aware of their rights and responsibilities pursuant to this policy.

The Director will maintain the confidentiality of all complaints. If the Director feels that they are not the appropriate person to deal with the complaint, they will refer the matter to either a member of the management team or an external independent party for review and/or action.

6.2 Staff, Contractors and Clients Responsibilities

Gramac Training Solutions staff, contractors, learners and learners have the responsibility to:

- Act to prevent harassment, discrimination and victimisation against others
- Respect differences among other staff, learners and contractors, such as cultural and social diversity
- Treat people fairly, without discrimination, harassment or victimization
- Respect the rights of others
- Respect people's rights to privacy and confidentiality
- Refuse to join in with these behaviours
- Supporting the person in saying no to these behaviours
- Acting as a witness if the person being harassed decides to lodge a complaint
- Observe site rules or behaviour guidelines set by Gramac Training Solutions Trainers/Assessors
- Behave in a manner that does not interfere with the learning of others; and
- Conduct themselves in a responsible manner while in training
- Ensure the rights of all clients and learners to have their say, balanced with the responsibility to listen to others and allow others to have their say

If a Gramac Training Solutions staff, contractor or learner feels harassed, bullied or otherwise a victim of unwelcome behaviour, the staff, contractor or learner is encouraged to inform the person where the behaviour is unwanted, unacceptable and/or offensive. If the staff, contractor or learner feels unable to approach the person, or if the behaviour continues following their request that the behaviour cease, the Director Gramac Training Solutions should be contacted.
